

Commanda Community Centre, 4009 Hwy 522 (12 miles west of Trout Creek, which is halfway between Huntsville and North Bay)

Commanda Annual Harvest Fundraising Dance: Great country/folk rock band Western Radio,

Saturday Sept 22, 2018 - doors open at 7 pm, band starts at 8 pm.

Western Radio

Ron Nigrini and Ken Harris have led the band Western Radio since its inception in Toronto in the 1980s. Their blend of country and folk rock and the enthusiasm with which it's played brings people to the dance floor as soon as the opening chords are struck. The band includes stellar electric guitarist Andy McClelland and the creme de la creme of Toronto's rhythm sections, Rodney St. Amand on bass and Mitch Lewis on drums. This is Western Radio's 25th year at the Commanda Community Centre's Harvest Dance. A guaranteed great time with a great band. Plan to Attend.

*****

Tickets $20, Members $15 - Available at:

Commanda Post Office, Trout Creek General Store, Gerry's General Store (Restoule) and Powassan Home Hardware.

(Or to reserve your tickets for pick up at door, send e-transfer to commandaccpayments@gmail.com. Please first send an email with your name and how many tickets you're purchasing.)

Any questions? Contact Renee White at (705)729-5437 and/or see our website www.commanda.ca